

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A catalyst system combining a low temperature conversion catalyst (LTC), a hydrocarbon adsorbent and, optionally, a three-way catalyst (TWC), is designed to achieve an ultra low vehicle emission standard for internal combustion engine powered vehicles, while never exposing the low temperature conversion catalyst to a temperature in excess of about 550°C.

469227 446680